7. Animals are prohibited in library buildings except service animals and animals in library sponsored programs. Under the Americans with Disability Act, service animals must be harnessed, leashed, or tethered, unless these devices interfere with the service animal's work or the individual's disability prevents using these devices. The individual must maintain control of the animal at all times.
8. Persons whose bodily hygiene or odor is so offensive, or whose body or belongings are infested with insects, including but not limited to bed bugs or cockroaches, as to constitute a nuisance to other persons and/or library staff, shall be required to leave the building.
9. The following are prohibited:
 - A. Use of the computer and/or Internet so as to violate the law.
 - B. Use of the computer and/or Internet for viewing, transmitting or downloading obscenity ("obscenity" is used here in its legal definition of materials considered outside the bounds of constitutionally protected speech, including child pornography), or materials that encourage others to violate the law.

 - G. Connecting any device that needs recharging or that is capable of running an application (including, but not limited to, phones and tablet computers) to a Library computer.
 - H. Use of someone else's library card to access the Internet.
10. Selling, solicitation, signature gathering and leafleting are prohibited in library buildings or any exterior areas that would in any way obstruct, interfere, and/or prevent access to entrances and/or exits of a library building.
11. Library customers may not photograph other customers or staff without permission.

Any customer not abiding by these or other rules and regulations of the library shall be asked to leave the premises. Conduct which constitutes a violation of these rules or the criminal laws of the State of Nebraska or City of Lincoln may result in suspension or banning of the customer from the premises. See Behavior Policy: Inappropriate and/or Illegal Conduct for definitions and information regarding suspension, banning and appeal procedure.
