

What Other Cities Are Reading

As Lincoln celebrates its third year of “ONE BOOK - ONE LINCOLN” events, we present the following listing of some of the many “Community Reading Projects” which have been held across the United States in recent years. Although some of these titles were selected by certain cities (or counties, or states) to emphasize regional works of their area, most of them can be considered “general works” — or works that would appeal to a mainstream audience. Titles marked by a “✱” are not currently owned by the Lincoln City Libraries.
