

Money management is a lifetime voyage.

Event Schedule

Thinking MONEY

A Financial Expedition

OPENING RECEPTION

Thursday, December 15, 2016; 3:30 p.m.
Bennett Martin Public Library, 136 S 14th Street

BUDGETING TO REACH YOUR GOALS AND REDUCE STRESS

Saturday, December 17, 2016; 2:00 p.m.
Bennett Martin Public Library
Presented by Jennifer Davidson, Nebraska Council on Economic Education

An informal and authentic sharing session on creating and using a budget to reach your goals and reduce your stress - especially around the holidays. Where do you want to be financially? Use a budget to get there. Bonus money saving tips included.

TEEN BUDGETING BONANZA

Wednesday, December 28, 2016; 12:00 p.m.
Bennett Martin Public Library
Led by library staff, teens are invited to compete in a Budgeting Bonanza to see who can stretch their budget the furthest and achieve the perfect meal. No money necessary, lunch will be provided, space is limited. Call 402-441-8546 to register.

GIVE YOURSELF CREDIT

Saturday, January 7, 2017 - 10:00 a.m.
Walt Branch Library, 6701 S 14th Street
Presented by Dr. Tammi Fischer, Nebraska Council on Economic Education
Teens, have you ever loaned money to a friend? How will you know they will pay it back? Or, have you borrowed something from a friend? What factors should you consider when borrowing?
Understanding credit plays an important role in lending. Find out more in this interactive session, guaranteed to be INTERESTing. Bring your smart phone or mobile device with internet access.

PREVENTING SENIOR FRAUD

Monday, January 9, 2017 - 6:30 p.m.
Eiseley Branch Library, 1530 Superior Street
Presented by Ryan Sothan, Nebraska's Attorney General Office, Division of Consumer Protection. Prevent the victimization of Nebraska seniors by arming them with tools to guard against consumer fraud. Learn ways to identify scams and best practices if you or a loved one suspects foul play.

HEALTHY EATING ON A BUDGET

Saturday, January 14, 2017 - 11:00 a.m.
Bennett Martin Public Library, 4th floor auditorium
Presented by Becky Barnard, Nebraska Council on Economic Education
Healthy recipe ideas with shopping and budgeting tips. Live cooking demonstration with samples. Eating healthy doesn't have to be expensive or time consuming.

STORYTIME

Saturday, January 14, 2017 - 11:00 a.m.
Bennett Martin Public Library, 4th floor conf. room
While caretakers are attending Healthy Eating on a Budget children can attend storytime with a financial theme. It's never too early to start learning the concept of money management.

PROTECTING YOUR IDENTITY BETWEEN WORK AND PLAY

Sunday, January 15, 2017; 2:00 p.m.
Gere Branch Library, 2400 S 56th Street
and
Wednesday, January 18, 2017 - 12 noon
Bennett Martin Public Library
Presented by Ryan Sothan, Nebraska's Attorney General Office, Division of Consumer Protection. An all-ages presentation on what identify theft is, how it occurs, and what to do when it happens to you.

Thinking Money was developed by the American Library Association Public Programs Office in collaboration with the FINRA Investor Education Foundation, whose support made this exhibition possible.