Lincoln City Libraries fosters the power of reading and provides open access to all forms of information to enrich people's lives every day.

The Library Board of Trustees is a group of seven residents of Lincoln to whom the administration of the public library is entrusted. The Board of Trustees of the Lincoln City Libraries is an administrative board appointed by the Lincoln City Council. Each member serves a seven-year term. It is the trustee’s obligation to work toward improvement in library services through well-trained staff and efficient use of funds; to support adequate funding for good library services; and to promote the best possible use of all library resources.
The Library Board of Trustees strives to develop diversity in its membership as well as members with a wide range of experiences and skills.
